

Some of the names or attributes of our God:

In more or less alphabetical order, and each with at least one reference in Scripture. The fourth word in the Bible is Elohim (“In the beginning, Elohim ...”) and doesn’t argue the case for the existence of God. Thus, the Bible begins with God, He simply is - without question. This list is not an exhaustive one, but, having originally started the list as “The names of our God,” then found many more, I felt obliged to rename this list as “Some of the names of our God,” as there may well be many more that I haven’t yet discovered. This list then, is simply of those which I have discovered up to the date at the bottom of the list, They are mostly Old Testament names, so I assume that there are more in the New Testament. If you can point me in the direction of others not listed here, please feel free to let me know. Our Web site, E-Mail and Snail Mail addresses etc. are at the end of this list.

Where there are different meanings for the same Hebrew word, or different words for the same meaning, one must always look at the context. This is advisable in every case anyway.

1. Abba (Romans 8:15) Meaning “Father” or “Daddy.”
What a privilege this, to call the Lord God of Israel, the creator of all things, Father, or, more intimately, Daddy!
2. Adon (Genesis 15:2) Meaning “lord,” the Headship Name. The word may be applied to God or to man, but in the latter case, the word starts with a lower case “a.” Adon is the singular form, Adonai being the plural form. The implication in the use of this word is the right to absolute obedience and the servant’s right to have clear direction in service. In many cases, Adonai may be substituted for “Elohim” or “Jehovah” in the compound names of Elohim or Jehovah below.
3. Adoni (Genesis 23:11). Meaning “my lord” as in a term of deep respect. The root of both Adon and Adoni is the same as ADONAI
4. ADONAI (Frequent usage) Meaning “The Lord” or “The Master.”
5. ADONAI ‘Elyon (Psalm 7:17) Meaning “The Lord, the God most high” or “The Lord, the supreme God” or “The Lord, the uppermost God.”

Eternity of Being. It also carries the implication that He is God over all things everlasting.

33. El Shaddai (Genesis 17:1) Meaning “All-sufficient God.” Usually (mis-) translated as “Almighty God” where the word Almighty doesn’t convey the true meaning. The first occurrence of this name is in this verse, where Almighty God appeared to Abraham at the age of 90 years old and told him to ‘reproduce’ himself, since El Shaddai is quite capable of enabling (or sufficient to enable) Abraham to do this!

40. Elohe Yakob (or Ya’akov) (Psalm 20:1) Meaning “God of Jacob (Yakob)” or “God of Israel,” Jacob being one of the collective names of the nation of Israel. The fact that the letter of Jacob was renamed by the translators of the King James (Authorised) Version really had nothing to do with the anti-Semitism rife at the time (and now!) of course! Naturally, it is because the king’s name at the time was James. Almost only in the English language versions of the Bible is this change made, most other major language versions use the proper name of Yakob or Jacob.
41. Elohe Yisrael (Psalm 59:5) Meaning “God of Israel.”
42. Elohim (Genesis 1:1; 1:26) Meaning “God,” or “God, the Strong Creator.” Note that in the Hebrew language, any word ending in “-im” is a plural word.
Thus, we see the hidden meaning of the trinity of which now we know, even in the very first verse of Scripture. Also used as a term of deference to such as a magistrate, or as a superlative.
43. Elohim Bashamayin (Deuteronomy 4:39; Joshua 2:11) Meaning “God in Heaven.” There is no other God, in heaven or anywhere else.

52. Elohim Tzva’ot (2 Samuel 7:8) meaning “God of Armies” or “God of hosts.”
53. Elohim Yachal (Psalm 43:5, Romans 5:1-5, 15:13) Meaning “The God of Hope.” This Hope that isn’t like an earthly hope of - it might be, if we’re lucky. This Hope in our God is a certainty! What He says MUST come to pass.

55. El Elyon Genesis 14:18-20 Meaning “God most high.” My notes in the Complete Jewish Study Bible (CJB) tell me that Elyon was the title given by the Ca’anites to their top god and was appropriated by the Hebrews to express their understanding that their God was the highest in every aspect of life.
56. Gelah Raz (Daniel 2:28) Meaning “Revealer of Mysteries.” This is simply because there is nothing that can be hidden from our God.
57. Ha-Melech Jehovah (Psalm 98:6) Meaning “The Lord the King.” One before whom we should make a joyful noise.

61. Jehovah (Genesis 2:4; Exodus 6:2, 3; 34:6) Also known as YHWH, the Tetragrammaton, pronounced Yahweh in Hebrew, Jehovah is the English rendering. The meaning is - “Lord” or literally, “He that is who He is.” From this follows the meaning “The Eternal I AM.” When Moses asked who he should say sent him, the Lord answered “I AM THAT I AM.” Thus God is “I AM (add whatever function or capability is appropriate for the moment).” It can also be translated as “The self existent one.” Jehovah is the redemptive name the deity, showing this particular relationship between God and His people

- Israelite (Jews) and believers. Jehovah is also the base of the compound names of our God which follow.

72. Jehovah Elohim (Genesis 2:4; 3:9-13, 21; Exodus 34:6) Meaning “Lord God,” or “The Redeemer-Creator.” Also the various meanings as above combined. This then shows the redemptive nature of our God to the Israelite (or Jews as they are collectively known today, although strictly this should only apply to the descendants of the tribe of Judah) and the believers. This is also the name of Jesus in the Old Testament.
73. Jehovah-Elohim-Saboath (Psalm 59:5; 84:8; Jeremiah 15:16) Meaning “The Lord God of Hosts.” That is, of the hosts of Heaven, Creation and all Creatures.

86. Jehovah-Jireh (Genesis 22:13-14) Meaning “The Lord our provider” or “The Lord shall provide.” As in this passage in Genesis, where the Lord provided the ram for the sacrifice rather than Abraham sacrificing Isaac. Jehovah Jireh is sometimes jokingly corrupted by those “on the dole” or “on benefits” to be, Jehovah Giro! Perhaps this is why the bank is named the “Giro Bank?”

108. Jehovah Saboath (I Samuel 1:3) Meaning “The Lord of Hosts.” The basic meaning is implied as “The Lord of (Warrior) Hosts.” However, the “Hosts” in this name has several meanings: Heavenly Bodies (Genesis 2:1, Nehemiah 9:6, Isaiah 40:26); Angels (Luke 2:13); Saints (Joshua 5:15) and Sinners (Judges 4:2, II Sam 10:16, II Kings 5:1) The Lord God is able to marshal any or all of these hosts for His purposes.

113. Jehovah-Tsidkenu (Jeremiah 23:6; 33:16) Meaning “The Lord our Righteousness.” This occurs in a prophecy specifically related to the future restoration and conversion of the nation of Israel, the first stage of which has come true in my own lifetime in 1948. The nation of Israel will at the time of their complete restoration, declare “The Lord our Righteousness” (Jehovah-Tsidkenu) when they as a nation, turn back to the Lord God (Jehovah Elohim).

121. Rumn Ro’sh (Psalm 3:1-4:1) Meaning “The One who lifts my Head.” As in no longer cowering in fear of one’s enemies - especially for us Christians today in the war against Satan and his armies of demons. V3 is “But you, O Lord, are a shield for me; my glory and the lifter up of my head.”
122. Sar-Shalom (Isaiah 9:6) Meaning “Prince of Peace.”
123. Yeshua HaMaschiach (A general term used throughout the Gospels and New Testament) meaning, “Jesus the Messiah.” Perhaps not specifically a name of our God, but included for completeness - since Jesus is God anyway.

All Glory, honour and praises, majesty and might to our wonderful Lord God of Isra’el and the keeper of our souls.
